Claims - how We will settle Your claim

If an Insured Person is involved in a legal dispute which cannot be resolved by Using Our helpline services and needs to be reported as a claim under this section, please phone Our dedicated claims reporting line on 0344 840 6345 which is open 24 hours a day, 365 days a year. All calls are recorded for training purposes.

Please have ready Your policy reference number, LPGBTE165, and note the following important information:

- a) An Insured Person must report their claim to Us on 0344 840 6345 as soon as the Insured Person becomes aware of any circumstances which could give rise to a claim under this section. You will need to provide confirmation that any other Insured Person has Your authority to claim.
- b) Be ready to provide as much information concerning the claim as possible. This may include details of employment contracts or agreements entered into with suppliers, copies of tenancy agreements, names and addresses of all parties involved, expert or medical reports and contact details of any witnesses. We may also ask an Insured Person to provide other information relevant to the claim as part of its assessment which may involve completing a claims form.
- c) This section is a claims occurred insurance which means that claims are only covered where the Date of Occurrence (usually the originating cause of the dispute) arises during Your Period of Insurance. All claims must be reported to Us within 180 days of the Date of Occurrence or We will not be able to assist with the claim (please refer to Exclusions – which apply to all Insured Incidents unless otherwise stated 1).
- d) We will not provide cover if the circumstances giving rise to a claim exist before the start date of this section (please refer to Exclusions – which apply to all Insured Incidents unless otherwise stated 2).
- e) Under no circumstances should an Insured Person instruct their own lawyer, accountant or legal representative or incur any costs before We have accepted the claim as the Insurer will not pay any costs incurred without Our agreement. Unless it is necessary to start legal proceedings (starting an action in a court to settle a dispute) or if there is a conflict of interest (where Our chosen Appointed Adviser cannot act for an Insured Person as to do so would breach their professional code of conduct), We will appoint Our own Appointed Adviser to act on the Insured Person's behalf if We accept their claim.
- f) We will always choose the Appointed Adviser in any claim where the Insurer is liable to pay a compensation award (this means We will always choose the Appointed Adviser for any claim arising under Insured Incidents 1 Employment Disputes, 2 Employment Compensation Awards and 4 d) Data protection breaches).
- g) Once all relevant information has been received, an assessment of an Insured Person's claim will be conducted and We will let the Insured Person know if We can help. Please note that Reasonable Prospects of Success must be present throughout the duration of any claim and cover could be withdrawn if at any stage Reasonable Prospects of Success no longer exist which could be as a result of new information emerging regarding the claim or as legal arguments develop.
- h) If We are unable to cover an Insured Person's claim, then We will explain the reasons why and discuss any other available methods (which may be at the Insured Person's expense) to help achieve a successful outcome.

If Our investigation is not resolved within five business days, We will aim to respond within four weeks of receiving the complaint. After We have investigated the complaint:

We will write to You immediately notifying You of the outcome of Our investigation. We will also advise that if You are not satisfied with the outcome, You may refer the matter to the Financial Ombudsman Service within the next six months*.

If We cannot resolve the complaint within 4 weeks:

We will write to You and inform You that Our investigation is continuing, giving the reasons for the delay and a date by which We expect to be able to contact You again.

If We cannot resolve the complaint within 8 weeks:

We will inform You of the reasons for the further delay and advise that if You are not satisfied with Our progress then You may refer the complaint to the Financial Ombudsman Service within the next six months*.

* If You do not refer Your complaint within the six month period, the Insurer will not permit the Financial Ombudsman Service to consider Your complaint and will only be able to do so in very limited circumstances such as where they believe that the delay in notifying Your complaint was as a result of exceptional circumstances.

Special Conditions

1. An Insured Person's obligations

An Insured Person must:

- a) keep to the terms and conditions of this section;
- b) take all reasonable precautions to prevent or minimise the risk of a claim occurring under this section and to avoid incurring any unnecessary costs; and
- c) supply Us with honest and accurate information when asked to do so.

2. Appointment of an Appointed Adviser

- a) If We accept an Insured Person's claim, We will appoint an Appointed Adviser who may be able to negotiate settlement before or without the need for court action.
- b) If an Insured Person's claim cannot be settled by negotiation and it becomes necessary for legal proceedings to be issued (starting an action in court to settle a dispute), or if a conflict of interest arises (where Our chosen appointed adviser cannot act for the Insured Person as to do so would breach their professional code of conduct), the Insured Person is free to nominate a law firm or suitably qualified representative to act as the Appointed Adviser.
- c) We will always choose the Appointed Adviser to act on the Insured Person's behalf in any claim where the Insurer is liable to pay a compensation award (this means We will always choose the Appointed Adviser for any claim arising under Insured Incidents 1 Employment Disputes, 2 Employment Compensation Awards and 4 d) Data protection breaches).
- d) Any law firm or suitably qualified representative nominated by an Insured Person must agree to represent the Insured Person in accordance with Our Standard Adviser's Terms of Appointment (which are available on request) and the most the Insurer will pay is no more than the amount the Insurer would have paid to Our own choice of Appointed Adviser.

3. Conduct of the claim

- a) An Insured Person must:
 - (i) co-operate fully with Us and the Appointed Adviser and provide any relevant information, documentation and evidence in connection with a claim when asked to do so; and
 - (ii) keep Us and the Appointed Adviser fully informed of any developments and instruct the Appointed Adviser to provide Us with any information We ask for.
- b) An Insured Person must not:
 - (i) act in any way which obstructs Us or the Appointed Adviser or hinders the progress of a claim; and
 - (ii) incur any Adviser's Costs and Expenses or any other costs or amounts without Our consent.

- c) We can:
 - (i) contact the Appointed Adviser at any time and have access to all documents and information regarding an Insured Person's claim;
 - (ii) withdraw funding for a claim and pursue an Insured Person to recover Adviser's Costs and Expenses or other costs or amounts already paid, if the Insured Person pursues or withdraws from that claim without Our consent or fails to pass on any instructions to the Appointed Adviser;
 - (iii) withdraw funding for a claim if an Insured Person dismisses the Appointed Adviser without Our consent and there is no valid cause to do so, or if the Appointed Adviser refuses to continue acting for an Insured Person with Our consent and there is valid cause to do so; and
 - (iv) withdraw funding for a claim if at any time We believe Reasonable Prospects of Success are no longer present. The Insurer will still pay any Adviser's Costs and Expenses or other costs or amounts We have agreed to, prior to Reasonable Prospects of Success no longer being present.

4. Claims settlement

- a) An Insured Person must tell Us immediately an offer to settle a claim is received and must not enter negotiations to settle a claim without Our prior consent.
- b) If an Insured Person refuses a fair and reasonable offer to settle a claim, We will be entitled to withdraw funding for that claim and the Insurer will pay no further Adviser's Costs and Expenses or other costs or amounts.
- c) We may decide to settle a claim by instructing the Insurer to pay the reasonable value of that claim instead of pursuing, defending or continuing with any action in court. In such cases We may decide to pursue the other party for the amount the Insurer has paid to an Insured Person and the Insured Person must allow Us to take over and continue the claim in their name and provide Us with any information in support of this action.

5. Costs recovery and assessment of costs

An Insured Person must:

- a) take all reasonable steps to recover Adviser's Costs and Expenses or other costs or amounts and pay such sums recovered to Us;
- b) tell the Appointed Adviser to have Adviser's Costs and Expenses taxed, assessed and audited and/or have their claims file audited by Us, if We ask for this. If it is established that Adviser's Costs and Expenses or any other costs have been billed which have not been agreed by Us, the Insurer reserves the right to refuse to pay these unauthorised costs.

6. Appealing the outcome of a claim

Appeals regarding the outcome of an Insured Incident, either made by or against an Insured Person, must be notified to Us as soon as possible and within 10 days of the deadline for any appeal. Reasonable Prospects of Success must still be present in order for an appeal to be considered.

7. Other insurance and apportionment of costs

If any Adviser's Costs and Expenses or other costs or amounts covered by this section are also covered under an alternative insurance policy, or would have been covered if this section did not exist, the Insurer will only pay their share of these costs.

8. Obtaining a legal opinion

We may require an Insured Person, at their own expense, to obtain an independent opinion from a barrister or other expert agreed between Us and the Insured Person over a claim's merits, financial value or Reasonable Prospects of Success. If the opinion supports the Insured Person and there are clear merits in proceeding with that claim, the costs incurred by the Insured Person in seeking that opinion will be reimbursed.

9. Disputes with Us

If there is a dispute between an Insured Person and Us over this section, which cannot be resolved through Our internal complaints handling process, the Insured Person is entitled to seek a resolution through the Financial Ombudsman Service as long as You are eligible to complain.

Where the Financial Ombudsman Service cannot deal with that complaint, the dispute shall be referred to arbitration which is a formal and binding process where disputes are resolved by independent arbitrators in accordance with the Arbitration Act. The arbitrator will be chosen jointly by Us and the Insured Person. If We and the Insured Person are not able to agree on the appointment of an arbitrator, the President of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators will decide.

The decision of the appointed arbitrator is binding and the arbitrator may require the Insurer or the Insured Person to pay the costs.

10. Your cancellation rights

a) Cooling-off period

You can cancel this section, without giving any reason, within 14 days of its start date or within 14 days of receiving Your policy documents, whichever is later. If You wish to exercise this right, You must notify the person who sold You this insurance. You will be entitled to a full refund of premium paid for this section as long as an Insured Person has not made a claim under this section during the current Period of Insurance.

b) Outside the cooling-off period

You can cancel this section at any other time, subject to providing the person who sold You this insurance with 7 days' notice. As long as an Insured Person has not made a claim under this section during the current Period of Insurance and subject to the terms of business between You and the person who sold You this insurance, You may be entitled to a partial refund of premium.

In the event of cancellation, the person who sold You this insurance may apply an administration charge. Please contact them for more information on any charges applied.

11. Our cancellation rights

a) General

We can cancel this section at any time, where there is a valid reason to do so, subject to providing You with 7 days' notice. Reasons for cancellation may include, but are not strictly limited to:

- (i) an Insured Person has failed to co-operate with Us or the Appointed Adviser and this failure has significantly hindered Our ability to deal with a claim or administer the insurance under this section; and/or
- (ii) a premium payment is due or a costs recovery is still outstanding by the end of the final deadline notified to an Insured Person.

b) Fraudulent or dishonest claims

If We have evidence that an Insured Person has made a fraudulent, dishonest or exaggerated claim, or has deliberately misled Us or the Appointed Adviser when presenting relevant information in support of a claim, We reserve the right to cancel this section from the date of the alleged claim or misrepresentation and recover from the Insured Person any Adviser's Costs and Expenses or other costs or amounts already paid in respect of that claim, which the Insurer otherwise would not have paid. We will also not refund any premium paid by You.

If fraudulent activity or false or inaccurate information is identified, We may, at Our discretion, pass details to fraud prevention or law enforcement agencies who have the right to access and use this information, which could result in a prosecution.

12. Persons involved in the contract of insurance for Section 6

Unless expressly stated otherwise, any person who is not a party to the insurance under this section has no right under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any of the terms of this insurance.

13. Choice of law and Acts of Parliament

- a) Unless otherwise agreed by Us in writing, the insurance under this section is governed by the laws applying to England and Wales.
- b) Any Acts of Parliament or Statutory Instruments referred to in this section shall include equivalent legislation in Scotland, Northern Ireland, the Isle of Man or the Channel Islands and shall also include any subsequent amending or replacement legislation.
